

Computer Aid
International

THC donates old computers to charity

Over 400 outdated PC monitors and nearly 300 disused hard drives were donated this summer to Computer Aid International.

They sent our IT equipment by sea freight to the following projects:

- Todo Chilenter Project helping disadvantaged schools in rural Chile
- Small farming producers in Ecuador
- Kabala University in Uganda
- Education for Sustainable Development in Kenya

This donation method is a standard practice for our computer disposal.